Solid Ground Youth

This Sunday our lesson is from Psalm 35. Psalm 35 helps us to understand that God will always protect us. David writes the first half of Psalm 35 asking God to protect him along with all of God's children. However, in the second half of the chapter, David asked God to punish those who have done him wrong. It seems like revenge or justice is something we all want when someone does us wrong. The thing that we must learn to do, is turn everything over to God and fully trust Him. We must "let go and let God."

Sunday Night Youth and Wednesday Night Small Group

Wednesday, May 29, the youth group will meet at the church around 5:30/6:00 p.m. and go to Madison for dinner-and-a-movie-night. We will be seeing Disney's Aladdin. There is also a calendar of events on the wall in the youth basement. Run downstairs and snap a quick picture so you will know what's going on ahead of time.

Children's Page

"Friends love all the time, and kinsfolk are born for times of trouble."

Proverbs 17:17

As we come to the end of the month, our final lesson is about the faith of friends. This story takes place after the death and resurrection of Jesus. Peter was traveling and spreading the Good News about Jesus, when he was summoned to the town of Joppa. A woman named Tabitha had fallen ill and died, but her friends had faith in Peter's ability to heal her. This is a reminder that we need to surround ourselves with faithful and prayerful friends.
